

Camp at Cross of Hope

Outdoor ministry has been an important part of my life and I know I am not alone. Rowynn Adams spent the last two summers working at our 'local' outdoor ministry site, Rainbow Trail Lutheran Camp. Whether on site, Rainbow Trail Lutheran Camp South, or Day Camp at Cross of Hope, many of us have been inspired by our connection with Outdoor Ministry. With the formative camp experience as our guide and model, we're so happy to gather together on Wednesday evenings again. Please welcome Rowynn as our director for this experience.

Rowynn Adams
Director of Camp at COH

The closing invitation from our partners in ministry at Rainbow Trail Lutheran Camp is to “take what you have learned down the mountain with you”. Here at Cross of Hope, we are living this out through Camp @COH our Wednesday evening ministry. Join us for a time full of spiritual growth, family camp centered games and campfire worship, and Bible studies for all ages.

All are welcome!

See you there!

Council Corner

Greetings and blessings from your Cross of Hope Council. We have been working several issues which are coming to fruition. Our biggest accomplishment for this month is the approval of updates to the Employee Manual. This brings it in line with new state requirements with regards to paid time off and adds holidays for staff in line with other like organizations. We are considering the idea of becoming a charter organization for a local Cub Scout Pack, in line with our current support for Boy Scout Troop 126.

The council is prayerfully considering the current and future staffing needs (more to come later). The resignation of Sharon Halstead was approved. She will be missed.

Streaming of church services is a consideration, as we move to what is next for our congregation. Any suggestions are welcome as we seek a path forward. Our new Wednesday Evening Service has become a popular inter-generational bit of fun.

Our financials continue to look healthy, but our offerings have been light lately. Please consider what you can do to help.

The Community Outreach committee is working on several upcoming events. There will be a Tailor Ranch community flea market in our parking lot on October 22.

Thanks for your continued support! –
Tim Fuller

HOPE GARDENERS – Fall is Finally Here by Margie Reed

Summer proved to be challenging for the Hope Gardeners as hot weather, rain, and tons of weeds made it difficult to keep the property in tip top shape. But, as usual, the team did a great job!

New volunteers Terry Caipen, Lynne Bagby, and Laurie Weiss joined Ruth Hinkel, Sherrie and Rudy Simek and Margie Reed in trimming shrubs, tending to flowers and roses, cleaning up the parking lot, and taking care of anything else that needed to be done.

Now it's officially fall, so the gardeners will be busy raking leaves, cutting down flowers and decorating for fall.

We are blessed to have these volunteers taking care of God's landscape.

Walk to End Alzheimer's and Clinical Trial for Alzheimer's Prevention

Have you or someone you know been touched by Alzheimer's Disease or another type of dementia? We are looking for people who want to make a difference in the future of Alzheimer's so that no one else will have to go through this awful disease. Cross of Hope is hosting an amazing chance to give back not only to the community but to the future of Alzheimer's.

We have two opportunities coming up:

The first is to participate in the Walk to End Alzheimer's which will be held at Mariposa Park on October 15, 2022, at 9:00 am. For more information, please visit the following website 2022 Walk to End Alzheimer's - Central New Mexico Walk in Albuquerque | Walk to End Alzheimer's

The second way to participate is to get involved in a clinical trial. Clinical trial participants play an essential role in the advancement of medicine. A clinical trial may seek to cure or ease chronic illnesses, provide better treatment options than those currently available, develop new technologies or improve patients' overall quality of life. In this process, you could be part of the reason why a more effective therapy exists for current and future generations to come.

IMA Clinical Research is proud to announce that we will be bringing a 2 Mobile Research Units (MRU's) to Albuquerque to help provide an opportunity to get involved in an Alzheimer's Clinical trial. This trial is looking for people ages 65-80 with "normal" cognition to be a part of testing a medication that will hopefully change the world. The trial will be testing for a protein called P-tau, which is said to be a pre-cursor for a buildup of plaque which is said to be found in Alzheimer's disease. The trial is looking at removing that plaque- which is HUGE!

The MRU's will be in the Cross of Hope parking lot on October 15 from 7am-4pm. You can get screened, and then go to the walk or come get screened after you walk. What a day to make a difference in the lives we love!!

Please reach out to Kim O'Roark, the Healthcare and Community Outreach Manager for IMA Clinical Research, if you have any questions 505-417-4206.

IMA Clinical Research is committed to the successful conduct of all clinical trials and accelerating timelines for patients to receive safe and effective treatments. Advancing the development of new medical treatments through a flexible clinical trial network that reaches people everywhere.

Doris Hermann

As interviewed by: Mary Bresnahan

Birthdate: July 30, 1929
Birthplace: Waterloo, IA
Marriage: May 25, 1950 to David
Children: Mary & Joel
Hobbies: Paint – oil & on china	Occupation: Worked at a meat packing and pajama factory

Doris was born on a farm in Iowa. She had two younger brothers (Harold living in IA and Glen who passed away). When she was a year old, the family moved into the city (Waterloo). Other members of the family remained on the farm. Doris’ mother, Martha, was a teacher and her father, Guy Bass, continued to help out on the farm. His primary job was with B. F. Goodrich, in sales. Additionally, he owned a gas station for a while. Both Martha and Guy grew up on a farm. (As it was back in those days, several generations were involved in farming.)

After high school Doris went to college. She didn’t like it so she got a job at Rath Packing where they packed bacon, ham, and burgers. She worked first shift in the office. This is where she met David, her husband to be. This was his summer job, and he was working second shift. David was a teacher and taught typing, English, and music.

After they married, David taught in Lake Park, IA. One of Doris’ brothers was a vet in Sibley, IA. He went to see the local principal and got David a job there. David and Doris moved and lived there for about five years.

David’s parents sold their farm in IA and bought a larger farm in Minnesota because the land was cheaper. David’s mother talked to the principal there and got David a job. So, another move for David and Doris. They were located in Farmington, just outside of Minneapolis. David’s brother was also farming there and built a “big” house. He gave David and Doris a couple of acres and they built a “small” house.

Once the children were in grammar school Doris went to work at a pajama factory. She was a “boss” and showed new employees how to use a sewing machine to make pajamas. Doris and David started to travel when the children were a little older. It was easy since they had family right there to watch after the children. What also helped with travel plans was the fact that David oversaw the exchange student program. They could travel any time of the year for about two weeks. There would be one in-bound student per year per school. Sometimes a student stayed with them. (Doris had a former exchange student from Columbia visit with her this past July.)

David was a member of a travel club so they would host travelers from around the world and the U.S. Hosting would be reciprocated when they traveled. Most of their traveling was by car. They went to Columbia, Europe and Canada.

I think Doris' favorite trip was to England and London. They purchased a car here in the states and picked it up in London. There they stayed in a castle. Doris' son, Joel, was in the Navy at the time and was able to meet them. They drove all over, including Spain and down the Danube River, visiting friends in Hamburg and Berlin. In addition to traveling in Europe they also traveled of the states, seeing 49 of them.

Doris' daughter, Mary Hughes (whom we all know), became a nurse and went to work on the Indian Reservation in Shiprock, NM. In 1990 after Doris' husband David retired, they decided to move to Albuquerque to be closer to Mary. They were staying at Ronald McDonald house. Strange place to be you might think, but Mary was there while her adopted child from the reservation was going through heart surgery. (That was Florence Begay whom we all know.)

A friend of Mary's invited Doris over for dinner. Their host said he wanted to sell his house. Hmm, Doris thought. She went home and told David. He looked at the house, liked it and they bought it. Doris is still living there.

Somehow, Doris thinks there is nothing special or exciting about her life. I think she has had some wonderful experiences and adventures. If you want to see Doris' eyes twinkle, ask her about her travels. Or maybe her great great granddaughter, Ruby who is 9 months old. Doris also has five grandchildren: Florence, Martha, Sam, Matthew and Nicholas.

Fall Has Arrived!

“As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease.” Genesis 8:22

Fall is here. The mornings are cool and crisp, the days are getting shorter and of course, football season is in full swing. Everyone has their favorite season. Some of us love the colors of spring, the green leaves coming out and the flowers starting to bloom. A time of rebirth. Then the heat of summer. We like to take walks, watch children play in our yards and admire blooming flowers. Of course, we get to eat that first tomato from our vegetable gardens! Winter is the other side of the coin. Cold temperatures, snow and some nasty days.

Each of us has that favorite time of year. I love a little piece of each season but autumn is definitely my favorite. I love the cooler temperatures and the crisp mornings. Nothing is nicer than walking your dog on an early fall morning. No matter where you go in the country, there are places where the fall colors really come through. Try New England in the fall. What a beautiful place, but here in New Mexico there are beautiful places too. You don't have to go far. Just walk in the Bosque along the Rio Grande. What a beautiful sight.

I know temperatures and a lot of other things come into play when the trees start to turn, but I have a mental picture, and in that picture, the Lord is sitting in his art studio with paint brush in hand. He paints a little gold here and a little orange there. Every year, every autumn, He creates a new painting.

So, sit back and enjoy his handiwork.

The Cost of Discipleship is a book by the German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer, considered to be a classic of Christian thought. The original German title is simply Nachfolge.
