Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost

Apparently not satisfied by Jesus' feeding of thousands, some who were there press him for a sign of his power; perhaps it is daily manna they want. As always in John's gospel when people want a sign, Jesus offers himself. He is the bread come from heaven to give life to the world. He calls us to come to him and believe in him, and through that relationship to know the one who sent him.

You are created in the image of God from the very beginning. This is the basis for God's justice: Since everyone is made in the image of God, then we need to recognize, honor, and respect the image of God in everyone.

No exceptions. – Fr. Richard Rohr

“You can always give without loving, but you can never love without giving.”

—attributed to various sources

“Character is the ability to carry out a good resolution long after the excitement of the moment has passed.”

—Cavett Robert

“Life appears to me too short to be spent in nursing animosity or registering wrongs.”

—Charlotte Bronte

“Be thou the rainbow in the storms of life.”

—Lord Byron

*Yet he commanded the skies above,
and opened the doors of heaven;
he rained down on them manna to eat,
and gave them the grain of heaven.
Mortals ate of the bread of angels;
he sent them food in abundance.*

Psalm 78:23-25

Five Weeks 'Bread Cycle'

The five weeks starting on July 28 are what is known as the 'bread cycle' as the readings all contain sayings from Jesus that revolve around the simple, staple food of bread.

July 28 - Enough for all.

August 4 - Life for the world.

August 11 - Gift of life.

August 18 - Tasting God's word.

August 25 - Words of eternal life.

What would it mean to consider bread as a statement of faith? What does bread and God's word together teach us about faith? How does our relationship to bread proclaim our faith and inform the way we live a life of faith?
