Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

Who are the blessed ones of God? For Micah, they are those who do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God. For Paul, they are the ones who find wisdom in the weakness of the cross. For Jesus, they are the poor, the meek, the merciful, the pure in heart, the peacemakers, those who mourn, and those who hunger for righteousness. In baptism we find our blessed identity and calling in this countercultural way of living and serving.

You are created in the image of God from the very beginning.

This is the basis for God's justice: Since everyone is made in the image of God, then we need to recognize, honor, and respect the image of God in everyone. No exceptions.

– Fr. Richard Rohr

Cross of Hope is located on the original and ancestral homelands of the Piro Tribe and Pueblo People, and we give thanks for their presence here since time immemorial. We also wish to recognize and honor all our Indigenous siblings who have and continue to call this land their home.

Helpers Needed

Our partners in ministry at Family Promise of Albuquerque have acquired new static site buildings. Thank you to everyone who has been part of this journey - we look forward to making you proud! Special thanks to our building fund donors and Bernalillo County for making this dream a reality. These residential properties will become the home of the new shelter program, day center for workforce and life skills development, and a single unit for transitional housing.

FPA anticipates beginning renovations in March and April of this year and need the following:

Those handy with light fixture installation, door lock installation, general cleaning, furniture assembly, and painters.

If you or someone in your circle are interested in being part of our renovation team (in addition to our contractors), please reach out to FPA Executive Director Michael Trimm
